Vibe Check: Build Your Money Brain

Friday, October 23 | 3:00 to 5:00 PM | TEC 202

One app for your whole financial life

Credit cards, savings, and investments in one dashboard, plus an AI you can ask a question.

Where did my money go this month?

This is a sketch of the idea. We build the real thing together.

Accounts
Balances in one place

Transactions
Every purchase, sorted

Ask AI
Ask about your spending

Alerts
Spot unusual charges

Five events, one project

Each event adds one piece to the same dashboard.

Plaid Sandbox

A practice bank with fake accounts

An AI chat tool

The assistant that answers money questions

All free. All fake data. Nothing real is ever at risk.

What is a GitHub repo?

Think of a shared Google Doc with version history, but for code.

Repo

The project folder, stored on GitHub

Commit

A saved snapshot of your changes, with a short note

Collaborator

A teammate you invite so they can edit it too

Today: your Developer creates the team repo from our template.

Pick a role on your team

Teams of 3 to 4. Small team? One person can cover two roles.

Role 1

Developer

Owns the code and the team repo

Role 2

Designer

Owns the look and flow of the app

Role 3

AI Prompter

Owns the assistant and its questions

Role 4

Researcher

Owns the why and what could go wrong

Today's six tasks

1. Meet your team and pick a team name
2. Pick your roles
3. Write 5 features and 5 user questions
4. Sketch the main screen
5. Set up your repo and run the app
6. Share out in 60 seconds

Bonus challenges
